Top Ten Common Myths about Math

1. Math ability is innately born among "a few good men."
2. Most women are not good at math.
3. There is only one right answer in math.
4. To be good at math, you must be quick at math.
5. Math is a collection of rules, theorems, formulas, and algorithms to be memorized.
6. Math and arithmetic are one in the same.
7. Students learn math best by going through the workbook, page-by-page, problem-by-problem.
8. Math is learned sequentially.
9. Math is a subject to be learned all in its own, separate from other subjects.
10. It is okay to not be good at math.