

VACANCY NOTICE

TITLE: New Vision Allied Health Instructor

LOCATION: SUNY Morrisville Campus in Norwich, NY

REPORTS TO: Director of Career and Technical Education

TERMS: Full-time, 10 month

QUALIFICATIONS: This is an unusual employment opportunity for a person with the appropriate education and background. NYS Teacher Certification in English and/or Social Studies or another appropriate area is required. Previous successful high school teaching experience is preferred. Extensive knowledge, skills and professional experience in a hospital setting or related medical field is a plus. Must be able to teach: Anatomy & Physiology, Medical Ethics and Medical Law. For the medical component, this position requires the successful candidate to be a lifelong learner who is unafraid of tackling new material, and learning the various components of the medical field to provide a quality program.

RESPONSIBILITIES/DUTIES: Selected candidate will be responsible for delivery of instruction in a classroom and lab setting, as well as providing experience for students in medical field rotations.

SALARY/BENEFITS: Salary and generous benefits and leave benefits based on the BOCES Teachers' Association (BTA) contract.

STARTING DATE: September 6, 2022

TO APPLY: Send cover letter, resume, and DCMO BOCES application.
